PROTEIN EXPRESSION AND PURIFICATION

Editor-in-Chief:
R.R. Burgess
 See editorial board for all editors information

Description

The power of modern molecular genetics to provide large quantities of proteins that were previously difficult to obtain has sparked an exciting interest in both practical and theoretical aspects of protein purification.

Protein Expression and Purification is dedicated to providing a forum for information about protein isolation based on conventional fractionation as well as techniques employing various molecular biological procedures to increase protein expression.

The following types of articles are published:

- Original articles reporting novel or significantly improved isolations of highly purified proteins
- Procedures for expressing and isolating proteins from genetically engineered sources
- Novel or improved molecular biological methods for overexpression of specific proteins
- Review articles that describe an approach to the expression and purification of proteins

6 Introduction

The Introduction summarizes the rationale for the study and gives a concise background. 9 Results

Emphasize or summarize only important observations. Simple data may be set forth in the text with no need for tables or figures. Give absolute values, not merely percentages, particularly for the control values.

Present your results followed by (Table 1 or Figure 2). Do not write "Table 1 shows that" or "Figure 2 demonstrated that."
